

EVERYBODY LOVES THE HOLIDAYS

There's a certain sort of something that arrives in mid-December
When the air is sharp and tingly like a tiny glowing ember
You can see it in their faces as that special time draws near Then all of sudden it is here!

Everybody loves the Holidays
Everybody has fun
It's the time of year when we all give a cheer
They'll be presents for everyone!
Everybody loves the Holidays
Yes, we know that it's true
Everybody loves the Holidays
Except for you!

ELOISA:
I am Eloisa Scrooge and money-lending is my station
Yes it's true that in my view, Christmas is an abomination
All that singing and bell ringing, well it simply makes it worse
Yes the Holidays are nothing but a curse!

Oh I/she really hate/s the Holidays
That nativity shtick
Peace On Earth again and Goodwill To All Men

ELOISA To be honest, it makes me sick
Yes I really hate the Holidays

ELOISA No I don't want a hug!
'Cos I really hate the Holidays

ELOISA Bah Humbug!
